2011-2012 INDEPENDENT VERIFICATION WORKSHEET

Your application was selected for a review in the process call "verification". Federal law states that we have the right to ask you for this information before awarding federal aid so that we can compare information from your FAFSA application with signed copies of your (and your spouse's, if you are married) 2010 Federal Tax forms, or with W-2 forms and/or other documentation. If there are discrepancies, corrections will be made electronically to your FAFSA by the Financial Aid Office.

Complete this verification form and submit all required information to the Financial Aid Office as soon as possible to avoid delays in receiving your financial aid.

Student's Income Information

As of today, are you (or your spouse) a dislocated worker? Yes  No

You are considered a dislocated worker if you:

- are receiving unemployment benefits due to being laid off or losing a job and is unlikely to return to a previous occupation
- have been laid off or received a lay-off notice from a job
- was self-employed but is now unemployed due to economic conditions or natural disaster
- are a displaced homemaker (person who previously provided unpaid services to the family, is no longer supported by the husband or wife, is unemployed or underemployed, and is having trouble finding employment)

If a person quits work, generally he or she is not considered a dislocated worker even if, for example, the person is receiving unemployment benefits.

If you answered yes to this question, you must provide proof that you (or your spouse) are a dislocated worker.

Complete the reverse side of this worksheet for both you and your spouse, if you have one. Do not leave any spaces blank, enter 0 in fields if necessary.

All sections MUST be complete or this form will be returned.
