AAS Business Administration

At the completion of this degree program, students will be able to do the following:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the role of business in modern society.

2. Explain the specialized fields within business organizations.

3. Demonstrate effective business communications.

4. Demonstrate mathematical competencies and ability.

5. Explain basic business practices and law.

6. Demonstrate a foundational knowledge of technology and be able to apply it.

7. Demonstrate a foundational knowledge of accounting principles and ability to apply it.