

AS Business Administration

At the completion of this degree program, students will be able to do the following:

1. Demonstrate effective business communications
2. Demonstrate mathematical competencies and ability
3. Articulate ethics
4. Explain basic business practices and law
5. Describe and evaluate Economic models and systems
6. Foundational knowledge of technology and be able to apply it
7. Foundational knowledge of accounting principles and ability to apply it “Prior Assessment Trends & changes Noted from Previous Cycle: Concrete reading and comprehension strategies were embedded into instruction with regard to textbook readings. Enhanced online resources including videos, articles, and websites were incorporated to add interest and enhance understanding.