

AS Fine Arts: Studio

At the completion of this degree program, students will be able to do the following:

1. Student will be able to identify artistic movements.
2. Student will be to identify the work of major artists.
3. Student will use research projects to develop a visual language.
4. Student will demonstrate an understanding of basic foundational skills while advancing to upper-level courses.
5. Student will be able to communicate thoughts, ideas and information using appropriate vocabulary for the target audience.
6. Student will demonstrate proficiency in mediums presented in fine arts courses.
7. Student will use proper sentence structure, spelling, punctuation and grammar in all written communication.
8. Student will produce a college-level portfolio.
9. Student will complete projects based in specific content.
10. Student will participate in class critiques.
11. Student will demonstrate sufficient reasoning ability to analyze and interpret information to solve problems.